

Go Green: Voluntary Internship Program
Social Justice & Service Lead Volunteer Intern

The UCCS Office of Sustainability will demonstrate excellence in providing knowledge, solutions, and leadership toward further sustainability progress for the university and support corresponding efforts in the Pikes Peak Region.

Position: Social Justice & Service Lead Volunteer Intern

Description: Campus Outreach Volunteer Intern

The Social Justice & Service Lead Volunteer acts as a professional-level support for issues intersecting Sustainability and Social Justice on campus. The Social Justice & Service Lead Volunteer will work with Sustainability Office staff to help plan, organize, and create programs to highlight and improve services following components of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Responsibilities:

- Organize, plan, and create a program or project to address social justice issues on campus.
- Research best practices in relation to your selected issue and create a plan to address the issue.
- Coordinate with campus community partners to work on ways to address this issue. In doing this you will focus on collaboration and how to leverage resources to correct this problem.
- Propose and implement a project, or workshop to address a way to improve your selected issue.
- Contribute at least 35 hours of volunteer work with the Office each semester
- Draft a small project report summarizing internship.

Qualifications:

- Ability to work independently
- Must be reliable
- Must respect deadlines
- Must have experience with Word, PowerPoint, and Excel
- Must be an effective communicator, both written and oral
- Enthusiasm for the mission of the Office of Sustainability and for what we do at UCCS and surrounding communities

Start Date: Position open until filled, requires 4-month commitment

Hours: 3-5 hours/week, preferably at least once a week in the Office

Compensation: This is an Unpaid/Volunteer intern position. This internship may qualify for academic credit.

To Apply: Please send a cover letter and resume to gogreen@uccs.edu